BENTON NIGHT RIDER TRIALS

First Night Rider Cases Resulted In a Hung Jury.

SAM COLLIE CLEARED.

More Than 80 Men Are Under Indictment Awaiting Trials.

Benton, Ky., June 20.—The jury in the Burnett Phelps case was dismissed this afternoon at 2 o'clock, after having been held together for twenty-six hours. They reported that it was impossible to agree. It was ascertained that the jury was evenly divided, six being for conviction and six for acquittal.

Burnett Phelps is charged with participating in the raid on Birmingham, in March, when John Scruggs, an old negro, was killed, and his infant grandchild was so badly shot it died the next day. Several negroes were whipped.

The defense relied on alibi evidence to acquit their client. Both sides made out a strong case. Commonwealth's Attorney John G. Lovett made a strong speech, denouncing such lawlessness as night riding in strong terms. He pleaded with the jury to do its duty and send Phelps to the penitentiary. Attorneys C. K. Wheeler and W. A. Berry, of Paducah, also put up strong arguments for their client, Attorney Wheeler's speech being "flowery." William Reeder also spoke for the commonwealth and Attorney Jack Fisher for the defendant.

The Phelps case was the first tried in Marshall county and it is considered a victory for the defense. The commonwealth's attorney is hopeful though of convicting some of the men indicted, and he has a large number to work on.

While Attorney Berry was speaking he made a remark that was approved by a large number of the audience applauding. The commonwealth's attorney was quick to arise and asked the court, "Judge I wish you would stop these night riders from applauding the speaker." There were some murmurs of disapproval at the request, but Judge Reed promptly informed the audience that a repetition would mean jail sentences for the guilty.

The case of Sam Collie, charged with the same offense, was finished at five o'clock this afternoon and given to the jury. The evidence in this case was practically the same as in the Phelps case, Otis Blick being the most important witness. Collie's defense is about the same as in the other case, both defendants presenting strong alibis. A verdict of not guilty was returned.

RENSHAW IS NOW SHERIFF

Another Decision By Court Of Appeals Destroys Last Hope.

SMITH LOSES HIS OFFICE

Original Case Will Be Heard By Judge Cook Tomorrow.

The Court of Appeals Saturday handed down a decision in the Smith-Renshaw case that in effect removes all doubts and declares John M. Renshaw Sheriff, by the "operation of the Statutes." The original case was to come up yesterday before Judge Cook on its merits, but was passed until tomorrow for the examination of the opinion of 26 type-written pages. The opinion is concurred in by O'Rear, Barker, Lassing and Carroll, Nunn, Settles and Hobson dissent. It passes upon almost every possible phase of the case and declares that a vacancy existed and that Judge Prowse filled it in a lawful manner. If Judge Cook should hold David Smith Sheriff still, the appeal would go before Judge Barker again and his decision in twenty days would of course reaffirm the opinion in the writ of prohibition and injunction cases. No matter what further steps are taken, it is not possible for Mr. Smith to hold on to the office. The original case might be appealed, but Renshaw would be Sheriff in the interim. In any event, the decision makes an election necessary and the Democrats are already expressing a determination to nominate candidates for both Sheriff and County Judge to be voted for in November. If Mr. Smith cannot run for Sheriff, he may be a candidate for County Judge. If Judge Cook decides to accept the last decision as settling the entire controversy, he will probably dismiss the case in Circuit Court and give the office to Renshaw at once and a hot campaign would at once open up.

Circuit Court Matters.

Will Johnson and Chas. Tyner, grand larceny, given 2 years each. Harrison Gowans, larceny from common carrier, 1 year.

Rush McKeynolds, manslaughter, plea of guilty to breach of peace and fined $15 and costs.

TAFT AND SHERMAN

This is the Tinket the Republicans Present to Consideration of Electorate.

TAFT NAMED ON FIRST BALLOT

On Thursday the Culmination of Great Convention Came in Naming Secretary of War For President.

Congressman James S. Sherman Was Named For Second Place After Brief Session on Friday.

Incidents of One of the Most Interesting Conventions in the History of the Party.

For President of the United States, WILLIAM H. TAFT of Ohio. Vice President—JAMES S. SHERMAN of New York.

Taft on the first ballot; Taft by 702 votes; Taft by the unanimous choice of the convention.

Such is the record of the culminating day of the Republican national convention of 1908, effected amid scenes of tumultuous enthusiasm and after a nerve-racking continuous session lasting nearly eight hours.

A hush of expectancy hung over the assembly as the call proceeded. Hasty summaries showed that Taft was far in advance. When New York was reached the Taft column tallied 427. Ohio carried the Taft total to 551, or twenty more than enough to nominate. Still the call went on until the final result was announced by Chairman Lodge:

"For Theodore Roosevelt, 3 votes; for Joseph B. Foraker of Ohio, 16 votes; for Charles W. Fairbanks of Indiana, 40 votes; for Joseph G. Cannon of Illinois, 51 votes; for Robert La Follette of Wisconsin, 25 votes; for Charles E. Hughes of New York, 63 votes; for Philander C. Knox of Pennsylvania, 68 votes; and for William H. Taft of Ohio, 702 votes."

Following is the vote for the unsuccessful candidates:

Cannon—Illinois, 51; Michigan, 1; New Jersey, 3; New York, 3. Total, 58.

Fairbanks—Georgia, 1; Indiana, 39; Kentucky, 2; New Hampshire, 3; New Jersey, 2; South Carolina, 2; Total, 40.

Hughes—New York, 65; Virginia, 2. Total, 67.

Foraker—Georgia, 8; Ohio, 4; South Carolina, 2; Virginia, 1; District of Columbia, 1. Total, 16.

Knox—New Jersey, 4; Pennsylvania, 64. Total, 68.

La Follette—Wisconsin, 25. Roosevelt—Pennsylvania, 3.

A great shout went up as Lodge concluded his announcement, and with one accord the cohorts of Cannon and Knox and Hughes and the others joined in a common tribute for the candidate of the party.

With Congressman James S. Sherman, of New York, chosen as vice-presidential candidate and running mate of Secretary Taft, the Republican national convention passed into history Friday.

The Formal Opening. The Republican national quadrennial convention was called to order at noon Tuesday, Harry S. New of Indiana, chairman of the Republican national committee, wielding the gavel amid a scene of party splendor rarely, if ever, equalled. The vast auditorium of the Chicago Coliseum had been decorated as never before for the occasion, and its seating arrangements, systematized to the last square inch, were hardly adequate for the throng which filled the great structure, every man and every woman on the tip-toe of anticipation.

Chairman New's attitude in calling the convention to order was business personified. Captain New never attempts oratory, and his terse, crisp sentences announcing the object of the convention created an excellent impression. Bishop P. J. Muldoon of Chicago was then introduced and in eloquence in all the deliberations of the body thus assembled.

Following the formal presentation of the gavel to the chairman, the call for the convention was read by Elmer D. Over of Ohio, secretary of the Republican national committee, and Senator Burrows of Michigan, temporary chairman, was introduced. The venerable senator, his shaggy beard much whiter than when he last attended a national convention, but with no diminution of vigor in person or voice, addressed his great audience on the record of the party during the four years since the last convention, concluding as follows:

"The work of this convention will soon be concluded. The platform will voice the dominant thought of the people, and the candidates nominated must stand upon it firm and erect. They must have the patriotism and sagacity of a Lincoln, the tenacity of a Grant, the wisdom and moderation of a McKinley. With such a platform and such candidates the issue cannot be in doubt. The Republican party confidently submits its record to the approving judgment of the American people and, upon its renewed declaration of faith, invokes continuance of public favor."

After the transaction of certain formal matters of miscellaneous business the convention then adjourned until Wednesday the various committees being instructed to meet at their several places to complete the details of permanent organization.

THE SECOND DAY

Speech of Permanent Chairman Lodge the Distinctive Feature.

The selection of Senator Henry C. Lodge as permanent chairman of the Republican national convention was formally approved at a meeting of the committee on permanent organization and it was agreed that all of the other temporary officers of the convention named on the floor Tuesday should be made permanent. Therefore when the convention assembled on Wednesday to hear the reports of the various committees, Senator Lodge was in the chair, prepared to direct the deliberations of the great quadrennial gathering to its close.

Incidental to the convening of the delegates an inspiring scene was presented when the many marching clubs, which have gathered here from various parts of the country for the purpose of whipping things up for several candidates, paraded through the hall.

The marching clubs assembled on Michigan avenue, at the foot of Adams street, opposite the Art Institute, marched down Michigan avenue to entrance "H" of the convention hall, into the hall, up the aisle, and out at entrance "H" on Wabash avenue, and then, meeting with the other in efforts to create the most enthusiasm.

Probably the most important act of the day, and the one having greatest significance on the final result of the convention, was the adoption of the report of the committee on credentials, seating the Taft delegations practically in toto. If there had been any lingering doubt of the Taft strength it disappeared before this decisive action, which in effect placed upward of 700 delegates in the Taft column.

Equally important, and even more remarkable, was the final acceptance of this result by the allies without the formality of a dissenting minority report, and without carrying the question to the floor of the convention for the open fight which had been long threatened. Instead of this all their party opposition seemed to crumble. The Taft delegates were quietly accepted the inevitable.

After the convention had been called to order, the Rev. William O. Waters of Chicago delivered an earnest prayer for divine guidance in the affairs of the day. Senator Lodge, in accepting the chairmanship of the convention, made a brief speech thanking the delegates for the high honor they had conferred upon him, concluding with the following appeal to the nation's electorate:

"We ask for the confidence and support of one American people because we have met the problems of the day and have tried patiently to solve them. We appeal for votes and for the power they confer because we have the president's policies and shall continue to sustain them. We make our appeal with confidence because we have a well-defined policy and are not, like our opponents, fumbling in the dark to find some opinion on something."

"We believe in the maintenance of law and order and in the support of the courts in all their rights and digress we are opposed to special privileges for any man, or any class of men, high or low, rich or poor. We who established the gold standard, are pledged to the cause of sound finance. We stand for protection to American industry and American labor, and we will resist the assault of the trusts under whatever name it comes disguised. We will see to the defense of the country. We mean to have a navy second to none in the world. We seek peace and friendship with all the nations, old alliance with none. Yet we have no intention of being a 'hermit nation.' The president of the world's people will be continued by the party which he has led. We are a party fit to rule and govern, to legislate and administer, and not a fortuitous collection of atoms whose only form of thought or motion is to oppose. Above all, we are true to our traditions and to our past. True now, as we were in the days of Lincoln."

"In this spirit we must prevail—by this sign we must conquer."

THE THIRD DAY

Adoption of Platform and Nominations Hold the Boards.

The final details of the national platform having been arranged by the platform committee, the convention was equipped Thursday morning to make its declaration of policy and proceed to the selection of candidates. The session opened at 10 o'clock. Instead of at noon, as heretofore, so that a full day might be had for the discussion of principles and men. The platform went before the convention early in the day and its adoption was followed by the speeches placing in nomination the candidates for president.

Several changes in phraseology were made in certain planks of the platform as presented to the committee. There were also some alterations of an essential character in some of the more important declarations, so that the platform as adopted is in some particulars, though in no essentials, different from the draft of the document which was prepared in Washington.

The presentation of the report on permanent organization was the signal for Senator Burrows to yield his place as temporary chairman and to escort to the platform the permanent chairman of the convention, Senator Lodge of Massachusetts. Mr. Lodge, trim and businesslike, looked as fresh as the younger generation that the white-haired retiring chairman. His voice, too, had that resonant New England twang which made it ring out to the farthest corners of the galleries, carrying message and sarcasm which started the listeners to attention and applause.

"The president," exclaimed Mr. Lodge, "is the best abased and most popular man in the United States today."

This was the long-awaited signal. Instantly a shout broke from the galleries and the floor, and the delegates, at first only a tempest of detached yells and cat-calls, and shouts of "Teddy," but gradually gathering force and volume, until it swelled to a whirlwind of sound and motion, delegates and spectators rose en masse, mounting chairs, waving banners, hats, handkerchiefs, flags, newspapers, anything which could be seized to add to the turbulence to the scene. Amid the tumult the band struck up, but the crash of the brass and drums was completely lost in the babel of sound, which welled from 14,000 throats.

Wonderful Demonstration. For the first minute Senator Lodge stood waiting to proceed, occasionally raising his hand for silence, only to awaken a defiant yell twice louder than before. Five minutes passed, and instead of abating the uproar was increasing. The sergeant-at-arms moved up a chair for the presiding officer and Senator Lodge sank back to await a lull in the storm. Five minutes—ten minutes—fifteen minutes.

There was no lull, no abatement. A hoarse roar had taken the place of the detached yells.

"Thirty years ago four years more" came in a deafening chorus from the full sweep of the galleries, as if preconcerted, each "four, four, four" exploding like the boom of heavy artillery.

Fifteen minutes—twenty minutes—twenty-five minutes.

Now delegations were joining in the outbreak. Some had mounted chairs—Texas, Kentucky, Tennessee, and were gesticulating madly. One delegate, far to the left, had torn off his coat and was whipping it wildly above his head. Texas and Kentucky appeared to be to the center of the agitation on the floor. New York viewed the storm with calm and so did Ohio, except, strangely, one of the lone Foraker delegates. Judge Marcus Shoup, who, mounted on a chair, with both arms in motion with a waving flag and a newspaper and his voice joining in the general pandemonium.

Thirty minutes—thirty-five minutes—forty minutes—forty-five minutes.

A full three-quarters of an hour had passed in this bewildering confusion of sight and sound. For a time some delegates felt as if a stampede was imminent. But the political generals were glad to give the pent-up enthusiasm of the multitude this outlet of expression, and at no time was there the slightest apprehension among them that the well-rehearsed plans would miscarry by some overpowering movement. Frank H. Hitchcock, the Taft manager, was in the front of the floor, smiling as the tumult was at its height. "The cheers for Roosevelt today will be for Taft tomorrow," said he with confidence.

PARTY PLATFORM

Resolutions Upon Which Republicans Base Their Claim For the Suffrages of the People.

ENUNCIATION OF PRINCIPLES

Leading All In This Declaration of Party Determination Is an Extraordinary Bill of Praise For the President of the United States.

The platform adopted by the Republican national convention at Chicago is in part as follows:

Once more the Republican party, in national convention assembled, submits its cause to the people. This great historic organization that destroyed slavery, preserved the Union, and made credit, equality and peace the domain, established a sound financial system, developed the industries and resources of the country and gave to the nation her part of honor in the councils of the world, now meets the new problems of government with the same courage and capacity with which it solved the old.

Praise for Roosevelt. In this the greatest era of American advancement, the Republican party reached its highest service under the leadership of Theodore Roosevelt. His administration is an epoch in American history. In no other period since national sovereignty was won under Washington or preserved under Lincoln has there been such mighty progress in these ideals of government: justice, equality and peace, and fair dealing among men. The highest aspirations of the American people have found a voice. Their most exalted servant has come to represent, not political sovereignty alone, but the best aims and noblest purposes of all his countrymen.

American manhood and womanhood have found a nobler sense of duty and obligation. Conscience and courage in public station and highest standards of right and wrong in private life have become the cardinal principles of political faith; capital and labor have been brought into closer relations of confidence and independence, the abuse of wealth, the tyranny of power and all the evils of privilege and favoritism have been put to scorn by the simple, manly virtues of justice and fair play.

The great accomplishments of President Roosevelt have been the more effective regulation of the rates and service of the great transportation lines; the complete overthrow of preference, rebates and discriminations; the abolition of labor disputes; the amelioration of the condition of wage workers everywhere; the conservation of the natural resources of the country; the forward march of the improvement of the inland waterways, and always the earnest support and defense of every wholesome safeguard which has made more secure the guarantees of liberty and property.

These are the achievements that will make for Theodore Roosevelt his place in history. But more than all else, his brave and impartial enforcement of the law, the prosecution of illegal trusts and monopolies, the exposure and punishment of evil-doers in commerce, the honest and effective regulation of the rates and service of the great transportation lines; the complete overthrow of preference, rebates and discriminations; the abolition of labor disputes; the amelioration of the condition of wage workers everywhere; the conservation of the natural resources of the country; the forward march of the improvement of the inland waterways, and always the earnest support and defense of every wholesome safeguard which has made more secure the guarantees of liberty and property.

equipped for a revision of the tariff by a special session of congress immediately following the inauguration of the new president, and commended the steps already taken to this end in the work assigned to the appropriate committees of the two houses, which are investigating the cause of the tariff and effect of existing schedules.

In all tariff legislation the true principle of protection is best maintained by the imposition of such duties as will equal the cost of production at home and abroad, together with a reasonable profit to American industries, and the benefits of the development of such a permanent establishment of maximum and minimum rates to be administered by the president, under limitations fixed in the law, the maximum to be available to protect discriminations by foreign countries against American goods entering their markets, and the minimum to represent the normal measure of protection to the aim and purpose of the Republican policy being not only to preserve, without excessive duties, that security against foreign competition to which American manufacturers, farmers and producers are entitled, but also to maintain the high standard of living of the wage-earners of this country, who are the most direct beneficiaries of the protective system.

Currency and Banking. We approve the emergency measures adopted by the government during the recent financial disturbances, and especially commend the passage by the last session of congress of the temporary enactment designed to protect the country from a repetition of such stringency until there can be established a permanent currency system that will avoid all emergencies. The Republican party is committed to the development of such a permanent system, responding to our greater needs and in-line in all respects with the most progressive nations of the world and the appointment of a monetary commission by the present congress, which will impartially investigate all proposed methods, insures the early realization of this purpose. In line with the purpose here declared to secure by over a wide measure greater safety and stability in the banking and currency system, we favor the establishment of a postal savings bank for the people, upon principles embodied in the measure now pending in congress and set for vote on December 14 next.

Anti-Trust Legislation. The Republican party passed the Sherman anti-trust law, over Democratic opposition and enforced it after Democratic rejection. It has been a wholesome instrument for good in the hands of a wise and fearless administration. Its experience has shown that its effectiveness can be strengthened and its real object better obtained by such amendments as will give to the government greater supervision and control over and security greater publicity in the management of that class of interstate corporations having power and opportunity to effect monopolies. At the same time it will not interfere with the operation of such associations among business men, farmers and wage earners as result in a positive benefit to the public.

Railroad Rate Law. We approve the enactment of the railroad rate law, passed by the present administration of the statutes against rebates and discriminations, as the result of which the advantages formerly possessed by the large shippers over the small shippers have substantially disappeared.

Laws in Behalf of Labor. The enactment in constitutional form by the present session of congress of the employer liability law; the passage and enforcement of the safety appliance statutes, as well as the additional protection secured for engineers and firemen; the reduction in the hours of labor for trainmen and railroad telegraphers; the successful exercise of the powers of mediation and arbitration between interstate railroads and their employees, and the enactment of a law for the compensation for injured employees of the government are among the most commendable accomplishments of the present administration.

The Republican party will uphold at all times the authority and integrity of the courts, state and federal, and will ever insist that their powers to enforce their process and to protect life, liberty and property shall be preserved inviolate. We believe, however, that the rules of procedure in the federal courts with respect to the issuance of the writ of injunction should be more accurately defined by statute and that no injunction or temporary restraining order should be issued without notice, except where irreparable injury would result from delay, in which case a speedy hearing thereafter should be granted.

Welfare of Agriculture. Among those whose welfare is as vital to the nation as the wage-earner is that of the farmer—the American farmer. The property of the whole country rests peculiarly upon the prosperity of agriculture. The Republican party during the last twelve years has accomplished extraordinary work in bringing the resources of the national government to the aid of the farmer, and the extension of the rural mail service, rearmaments in the civil service system; defense for forest conservation and irrigation; and other provisions for pensioners; raises the work being done in the canal zone, and concludes by asking that the party be continued in power.

The military service in seven months has cost the State $45,000, but Gov. Willson's equalization board raised the tax assessments to bring in $200,000 new taxes. This increase falls mostly upon farm lands, which he claims have been enhanced in value by more lucrative prices for farm products. It will thus be seen that the farmers themselves are paying for the soldiers.

There is apprehension on the part of many Nashville people that the Tennessee Central road may fall into the hands of the Louisville and Nashville, and that the city will again be in the clutches of a railroad monopoly. Maj. E. B. Stahlman, in an interview in the Banner, predicts instead of failing to exercise the option July 1, the Illinois Central and Southern railway will foreclose the road and bid it in cheaper, thus wiping out Nashville stock, and that they will continue to operate the road.

A hole three-quarters of a mile discovered in Arizona and a government official who has been investigating concludes that it was made by the impact of a meteor in pre-the depth of 842 feet in the bottom of it indicate that it will be a good hole for Taft and Sherman to go into after the November election, if some arrangement can be made by which they can pull the hole in after them.

James Schoolcraft Sherman, Republican nominee for Vice-President, is 53 years old and lives in Utica, N.
Y. He has been in Congress twenty years and is a trust lawyer of large fortune. He is President of the Utica Trust and Deposit Co. and of the Hartford Canning Co. and is also the head of an ice monopoly. Mr.
Sherman has figured in some unav-ing campaign matters. He was chairman of the committee that had to do with the campaign funds raised by Harriman for the Republican ticket and helped to defeat the campaign publicity bill. He is said to be a henchman of Mayor Tom Wheeler, the Utica boss, and has persistently sought lucrative offices. He sided with the packers when Congress got after them and forced them to give a pound for a pound. He was called "Short-weight Jim." He has picked up $2,000,000 during his political career in one way or another. Mr.
Sherman has three grown sons. He

ONE ON INNES.

Enjoys an Occasional Joke on Himself.

One of the characteristics that makes Mr. Innes so admired and enjoyed by all who meet him, is his keen sense of humor. He is full of originality and while always ready to have a joke on some member of his big company, he no less enjoys an occasional one of himself. He tells of once giving a summer concert in New Jersey. He appeared on the stage, bowed his acknowledgment to the applause of the audience and, taking up his baton, gave the first program number, which happened to be the Preludes by Liszt.
This selection never fails to create a great burst of enthusiasm, so he was not surprised at its completion to hear the expected applause. After bowing several times he responded with an encore. This number too seemed to meet with the same continued applause and after a few moments he responded with a second encore. Innes and his musicians like all public performers are inspired to their best efforts, by a responsive audience but after playing a third, fourth, fifth and even sixth encore, Innes began to wonder if the concert would not develop into an all night affair. The musicians being by this time breathless and thinking to quiet his audience Innes walked off the stage, but still it continued; not from one section of the house, but from every nook and corner. On reaching the wings he remarked to a stage hand: "That audience is the limit. Never before have I heard such persistent applause." "What do you mean?"
asked the man, who happened to be Irishman. "Why," said Innes, "the hand clapping." "That? That ain't hand clapping," replied the Irishman,
"that's the audience killing mosquitos."

Innes at once went back to resume his concert, but for the next encore he played the Mosquito Parade, at which the Irishman gave him a knowing and merry wink from the wings.

HER FEET WERE SORE AND CRACKED

Soles Seamed as Though Covered with Knife Cuts—Could Not Bear Weight of Feet Even on Pillow—Was Long Unable to Walk—Many Remedies Failed—Now Cured.

WILL PRAISE CUTICURA AS LONG AS SHE LIVES

"Some four years ago I had the misfortune to have my feet get sore. The doctors could not tell me what it was. I used everything I could hear or think of but all to no avail. The feet were all cracked across the bottom as if I had taken a knife and cut them every which way. They would peel up and oh, my! how they did hurt when I would try to walk—which I was not able to do for a long time. One day one of our neighbors came to our house and asked what was the matter. I showed him my feet and he said he had some Cuticura Ointment which would heal them up. There was only enough to apply once, but I found it helped me so much that I used it every day. Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Pills, costing one dollar, and to my great joy, my feet were cured and have never troubled me since. I shall praise Cuticura as long as I live, for the great help it has been. Mrs. Margaret Primmer, Platts, Mo., June 30 and July 21, 1907."

NIGHT RIDER BAND

Several Believed to Have Been Wounded by Troops.

Frankfort, Ky., June 20.—Several night riders may have been wounded and a body of them was repulsed by the soldiers in an attack which was made on the home of Louis Kinney, in Bracken county, in an attempt that was made to kidnap Kinney, who was an important witness against the night riders. The soldiers were on guard at Kinney's house fired several volleys at the riders and it is believed that several were wounded and carried off by their comrades.

The news of the clash between the soldiers and the night riders came to Frankfort this afternoon in a report from Maj. Webb, who is in command of the soldiers now on duty in Bracken county. Maj. Webb said in his report that a band of men went to Kinney's house about midnight last night and attempted to take him from his home.

They never had a chance to carry out their intentions, as the soldiers who have been guarding Kinney's home, in anticipation of an attack on him, promptly began shooting as soon as they saw the night riders, who fled. Maj. Webb says he has reason to believe that the bullets fired by the soldiers found human marks.

Louis Kinney is a brother of the prosecuting attorney in Bracken county and has made a determined effort to bring to justice the men who have been raiding in Bracken county. Kinney says that he will tell the next grand jury the names of many men who have been on raids with the night riders and believes that he has sufficient evidence to convict many. Kinney recently was whipped by a band of the night riders.

Residents of Jacksonville neighborhood, in Shelby county, near the Franklin county line, where Newton Hazlett was killed several weeks ago, are much excited and it is feared serious trouble may result. This morning there were found on the front porch of William Thompson, a son of Col. W. E. Thompson, a prominent member of the Burley Tobacco Society, a box of matches, a bottle of poison and a bundle of switches. A note said that Thompson had better leave within ten days or suffer the consequences. The note was signed "L. and O. L." the initials of the Law and Order League. It is feared that there may be a mild sort of civil war in that neighborhood. Troops are still on duty in that section.

GUARDED BY SOLDIERS.

Witnesses Protected Enroute to Crittenden County.

Paducah, Ky., June 20.—In company with Mrs. Minnie Dean, Sanford Hall and County Attorney Walter Krone, of Lyon county, arrived at Marion under escort of soldiers.

Mrs. Dean and Hall are witnesses in night rider cases in Crittenden county, and they will go before the Crittenden grand jury, which convenes Monday.

Hall confessed in Lyon county and implicated many men of that county. He was also a witness in the Hollowell suits in the United States Court here. He has been threatened with death in Lyon county, and since his confession, which was secured by Attorney Krone, he has been residing in Paducah. Mrs. Dean has also been here.

TENDERED AGED COUPLE

Reception for Gov. Proctor Knott and His Wife.

Lebanon, Ky., June 19.—An informal reception this week was tendered to the Hon. and Mrs. J. Proctor Knott, at the Masonic Temple, in this city, by Marion Commandery, No. 24, K. T., in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. The reception was largely attended by the friends of this well known couple, and it was a genuine pleasure for Governor Knott and his bride of half a century to meet their friends and receive congratulations. While the reception was given by the commandery, it was not confined to the craft, but the friends of all religions and politics were there to do this couple honor.

Mrs. Knott's health has been much better for the past few years than when she was young, but the Governor has become quite feeble. The impairment of the Governor's ability to walk, which keeps him much indoors, rendered this opportunity of meeting his friends exceedingly enjoyable.

Sick headache and biliousness relieved at once with Rings Little Liver pills. A rosy complexion and clear eyes result from their use. Do not gripe or sicken. Good for all the family. Sold by Anderson-Fowler Drug Co. Incorporated.

SPECIAL JUDGES

Will Sit in the Louisville Home Telephone Cases.

Frankfort, Ky., June 19.—On an order of Judges Lassing and O'Neal being interested, and therefore disqualified from sitting, in the case involving the Home Telephone Company ordinance in Louisville, Acting Governor Cox appointed T. L. Edelen and Gen. Dan Lindsay as special justices to sit in the cases.

WANTS CO-OPERATION

Henderson Tobacco Growers' Association Adopts Resolutions.

Cisney, June 22, 1908.

Dear Sir:—According to a resolution passed by the board of directors of the H. T. G. A., at a meeting held by them in Owensboro, Ky., on May 28, 1908, I am notifying you so that you can notify your board of control to meet with the different boards of control of the several districts in Kentucky, growing different types of tobacco, at Bowling Green, Ky., on the 9th day of July, 1908.

The purpose of this meeting is to consider ways and means for the extermination of the H. T. G. A. We deem this matter one of exceeding importance.

In the first place it is absolutely necessary that the different districts, which are under the several organizations, should at least recognize the importance of the co-operation in pricing, selling and limitation of crop growing. These matters we consider of vital importance to all tobacco growers; it matters not of what district they are associated with.

We deem the further necessity of co-operation among all tobacco growers for the fact that it is an undisputable question but what one type of tobacco can be substituted for another type to a certain extent, if not wholly so, it is true, however, that it would be a difficult matter to substitute one type of tobacco wholly for another, but at the same time if you advance the price of the raw material of one type and depreciate another type, it will certainly be substituted one for another.

Together with these facts we see the situation after a careful investigation, we believe that the tobacco growers throughout the State of Kentucky almost, if not quite, won the fight for their freedom and the right to price their product.

We trust your board will consider this meeting one of vital importance and will be present and give us the aid of your wise counsel as to whether you want to extend and continue a H. T. G. A. If you fail to join us in this meeting, we will be forced to decide that you do not care to co-operate with the rest of the districts in Kentucky.

Wishing you and your association great success, we remain
Fraternally,
E. L. DAVENPORT, Pres.

BRAVE NEGRO

Presented Medal By Citizens of Woodford County.

Midway, Ky., June 19.—In recognition of his heroic act in rescuing Miss Lula Woolfolk from a brutal assault made upon her by Sherman Powell, a negro, while returning to her home in the county from Midway, on the morning of Friday, May 1, George Wesley Combs, the well-known colored merchant at Zion's Hill, a small negro settlement near this city, will be given a gold medal and a handsome purse by the people of Woodford county. The medal, which is now on display in this city, is a beautiful one and has been greatly admired by all who have seen it. On the front side of the medal is engraved his name, under which are the words: "Heroic Conduct Medal." On the reverse side is engraved this inscription, viz: "Presented to George Wesley Combs by the people of Woodford county, Ky., for his heroic act in rescuing a young lady from a brutal assault on May 1, 1908."

The money for the medal and purse was contributed by a large number of the most prominent citizens of Woodford county. His act of bravery, which no doubt saved the life of Miss Woolfolk, has also been reported to the Carnegie Hero Commission, who will act upon it in a short time.

The negro, Powell, has been given a life sentence in the Frankfort penitentiary.

New Chairman.

J. T. Daughday has been chosen county chairman of the Tobacco Association in Graves county, vice Jack Dawson, resigned, who was recently elected to succeed J. W. Usher, resigned. Mr. Dawson will resume his former place as vice chairman. Mr. Daughday has called a meeting of the tobacco growers of Graves county to meet at the school houses throughout the county on the night of Saturday, June 28, for the purpose of pledging their tobacco to the association. Mr. Dawson's resignation was due to the fact that he did not find time to undertake the duties of the office of county chairman.

RACING GOING OUT

In California According to J. O. Keene, of Lexington.

Lexington, Ky., June 19.—According to J. O. Keene, one of the most noted trainers in America, who is at his old home here, from California, where he has been for the past year with his stable of horses, the sport is also doomed in California, and he is quoted as saying that in two more years at most racing will be dead in that state.

Public Sale.

The heirs at law of J. E. Stevenson and A. A. Stevenson, deceased, will sell at public outcry to the highest and best bidder, at the front door of the Courthouse, in Hopkinsville, Ky., on Monday July 6, 1908 the farm owned by said J. E. Stevenson and M. A. Stevenson at the time of their deaths, lying and being in Christian County, Kentucky, on the North side of the Hopkinsville and Lafayette roads, between Herndon and Bennetts town, consisting of three surveys, the first being the same conveyed to James Stevenson, Sr., by William Stevenson, by deed of date April 1, 1889, and of record in the Christian County Clerk's office in D. B. Y., Page 385, and inherited and purchased from the other heirs of James Stevenson Sr., by J. E. Stevenson. The second being the same conveyed to J. E. Stevenson, by Hunter Wood, Master Commissioner by deed of date July 2, 1877 and of record in said office in D. B. Y., page 176 and the third survey being the same conveyed to M. A. Stevenson, by W. W. Thomas and wife by deed of date April 24, 1889, and of record in said Clerk's office in D. B. Y., page 348, all being in one tract and containing 149 acres more or less.

The terms of said sale will be cash, January 1, 1909, possession to be given on said date with privilege of preparing for and sowing a wheat crop this summer and fall. The heirs of J. E. and M. A. Stevenson. By Frank Rives, Attorney.

VAGRANT NOTICE.

All vagrants, loafers, and idlers are hereby warned that the ordinances against vagrancy and loitering in the city of Hopkinsville will be vigorously enforced.

The farmers are begging for help in the harvest fields and everybody who wants work can get it.

All persons are requested to report to the police the names of idlers who are offered work and refuse it. CHAS. M. MEACHAM, Mayor. June 19, 1908.

Dissolution Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the Climax Milling Company, incorporated, was on the 2nd day of June, 1908, by the written consent of the owners of a majority of its shares of stock and by the action of its board of directors, dissolved and its charter articles of incorporation cancelled and surrendered, except for the purpose of disposing of its property, real and personal, settling its obligations and winding up its affairs. Persons holding demands against said company are requested to present same for adjustment.

Trust to Blame.

There is absolutely no excuse except cupidity for the soaring meat prices. If the government figures are correct. According to them, the percentage of increase in the number of cattle raised in the country is constantly greater than the population. The late falling off in the receipts of cattle since the October panic has been more than balanced by decreased consumption. If the statistics are right there should be dropping instead of rising prices. There is much reason to believe that the beef eaters are the victims of the Beef Trust. The best thing possible to do under the circumstances is to keep on as far as possible eating grass and abstaining from meat until November. In November there will be a chance to get back at the Trust by electing a Democratic Congress.—State Journal.

ROAD TO REVERT TO OLD OWNERS

Financial Circles of New York Are So Informed By
I. C. and Southern.

TENNESSEE CENTRAL.

Both Decide Not to Exercise
July 1 Options.—Proved a Costly Experiment.

New York, June 22.—The Illinois Central, it is learned has decided not to exercise its July 1 option on a controlling interest in the Tennessee Central, and on that date it will give up the operation of this line, over which the Illinois Central reaches Nashville. The Southern Railway which, along the Illinois Central, has an interest in this option, will not exercise its rights, as was made known some time ago, so that on July 1 control of the Tennessee Central Railway will revert to the former owners.

This means the abandonment by the Illinois Central of a line under its own control into Nashville. It was said today that the line to Nashville had been operated at a loss, and therefore its abandonment would be profitable to the Illinois Central, rather than otherwise.

The option on the Tennessee was taken by the Illinois Central and the Southern Railway three years ago. The Southern had a two-thirds interest in this option, and the Illinois Central one-third. Part of the transaction was the purchase of $4,000,000 prior lien bonds of the Tennessee Central, of which two-thirds were paid for by the Southern and the other third by the Illinois Central. The two roads continue to hold these bonds, but control of Tennessee Central will rest after July 1, with the old owners, who are chiefly St. Louis people.

It is understood that the control of the securities upon which the Southern and the Illinois Central hold the option is vested in a syndicate which was to have expired on July 1. The officials of the roads said yesterday that they had no information regarding the affairs of this syndicate. The securities controlled by this syndicate include, it is understood, the $8,000,000 of the road's capital stock and $8,000,000 of general mortgage bonds. What the exact purchase price fixed in the option is could not be learned.

In the negotiations between these two roads which resulted in the purchase of the prior lien bonds and the granting of an option for control of the road, the owners of the Tennessee Central were represented by United States Senator Bailey, of Texas. The reason for the decision of the Illinois Central and the Southern not to exercise the option is that the option price agreed upon three years ago is no longer regarded as favorable, in view of changed conditions which now prevail.

The Tennessee Central is 200 miles long, including branches, which run east from Nashville to Harriman, Tenn., where it connects with the Southern Railway at a distance of 165, and west to a connection with the Illinois Central, a distance of about 85 miles. The line afforded both these systems a direct entrance to Nashville. The western division has been operated by the Illinois Central and the eastern division by the Southern Railway since December, 1905.

Opening Ball at Cerulean
Will Be Given.

The opening ball at Cerulean Springs will be given on the night of Wednesday, June 24. There will be no tickets issued, but the public is invited. As usual a large crowd of young people from this city will attend.

Salubria Springs Opening.

The opening dinner at Salubria Springs Hotel Saturday night gave the new hotel a splendid start. There were about 200 guests registered, 60 or 70 of them from Hopkinsville. There was music by the band and a good time generally. Everybody was delighted with the new hotel and the surroundings, as well as pleased with the excellent mineral water. Salubria will continue to be a popular resort during the summer.

Points About People.

MEDLEY—
Dr. G. E. Medley will leave this week to resume the practice of dentistry in Cadiz, where he practiced until a year or two ago. He will form a partnership with Dr. Cunningham. Dr. and Mrs. Medley will be missed by a large circle of friends in this city. They are now occupying Mrs. Hale's cottage on South Main street and during their residence in this city have been prominent in social circles.

DENNIS—
Dr. J. M. Dennis, for more than thirty years a practicing physician of this city, is arranging to move to the country in the near future. He will locate on the Tandy place near Beverly. Dr. Dennis was a surgeon under Stonewall Jackson and his practice covers more than forty-five years. Of late his health has been impaired and he goes to the country to rest up and regain his strength.

UNDERWOOD—
The following sketch of Tom Underwood is from the Louisville Times, and all that is said is deserved:

"One of the brightest newspaper men in Kentucky—or the South, for that matter—is Tom Underwood, the newly elected vice president of the association. No other was mentioned in connection with the nomination for that office, and when Charles M. Meacham, of Hopkinsville, a contemporary of Mr. Underwood, placed his name before the convention there was a demonstration seldom seen outside of a political convention."

What is conceded to be one of the best papers read at the convention was prepared and read by Mr. Underwood. It was entitled "What is the Matter With Kentucky?" and the manner in which Mr. Underwood handled the subject brought forth praise from such veterans of the press as Col. Polk Johnson, Robert W. Brown, Green Keller and Lew B. Brown. It was a highly creditable paper and was much enjoyed by all who heard it.

Mr. Underwood is the editor of the Hopkinsville News Era. He has been in the newspaper business fourteen years on Hopkinsville papers and at one time served as managing editor of the Henderson Journal. He is now the editor of the New Era and is assisted by Walker Wood. As chairman of the Executive Committee Mr. Underwood had charge of the arrangements for the meeting at Cerulean Springs, which was one of the most successful in the history of the organization. The vice presidency is a stepping stone to higher honors, and Mr. Underwood will become president of the association one year hence."

WILGUS—
Says the Louisville Times: "The men all call him Bill, but the ladies more melodiously call him Willie. His full name is William Algon Wilgus, and he knows, enough people in Kentucky to be easily elected Governor. The best part is that everybody that knows him likes him, and this is particularly true of the softer sex."

Mr. Wilgus gets his mail at Hopkinsville, and he is one of those mainly responsible for the selection of Cerulean Springs as the recent meeting place of the K. P. A. Both at Cerulean and at Hopkinsville everybody seemed to be a member on the Committee on Reception, and everybody recognized that Will Wilgus was chairman of the committee and chief of entertainers, although there was nothing printed anywhere on the official handbills to proclaim this fact, owing to the excessive timidity and violet-like, shrinking modesty on the part of Mr. Wilgus, who blushes a royal flush every time he sees his name in print. At the annual banquet he did not serve as toastmaster, but he supervised every preparation, even to the making of the Mayonnaises, at which he is facile princeps. The ladies and gentlemen of the Kentucky Press Association will evermore cherish Bill in aromatic memory."

GARY—
One of the busiest men in the city during the Press reception was Geo. E. Gary, secretary of the Forbes Manufacturing Company. He was in active charges of the preparations for the big "blow out" at the Mogul factory and saw to it that each editor received every attention, including a souvenir cane made of Mogul hickory. George is a whole team when he spreads himself.

JOHN WILLIAMS

John Williams, of this city, was killed in Henderson Thursday night by an L. & N. train, near the union station. His right leg was mashed off and the toes of his left foot were also severed. Officer Hicks found him about 10 o'clock lying on a pile of screenings near the L. E. & St. L. tracks. An L. & N. train had gone out a few minutes before, and it is not known what train hit him. The negro said he worked at the ice factory and was from Hopkinsville. He was taken to the city hospital and died early Friday morning. His wife, Neely Williams, lives in this city on First street. They were married last fall. The widow called up officers at Henderson Sunday who told her the body had been buried there Saturday. Williams worked for John Young up to the time he left here.

SUDDEN DEATH

Of John Ed Buchanan in Evansville.

Mr. John Ed. Buchanan died in a sanitarium in Evansville Sunday night, where he had gone three days before, for a kidney trouble from which he had long suffered. He was born 52 years ago in Campbellsville, Ky. He came to this city in 1893 and of late years has been associated with Jno. T. Edwards in the insurance business. The funeral will be held at the home of his brother-in-law, W. H. Everett, at four o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Buchanan was unmarried. He leaves two sisters.

IS HE MARRIED?

Robert Embry Expected to Bring a Bride Home.

Mr. J. Robert Embry went over to Nashville Sunday to call upon his fiancée, Miss Katherine Howard, and yesterday telegraphed a friend here that congratulations were in order. His friends infer that he and Miss Howard were married and that his bride will return with him. Mr. Embry is a salesman in the hardware department of the Forbes Manufacturing Co. and is a splendid young business man. Miss Howard formerly taught school near Gracely. Her former home was Columbus, Tenn.

BETTER MARKET LAST WEEK

A sociation Salesman Disposes of One Hundred and Forty-seven Hhds.

THE PRICES WERE GOOD

Auditor's Report Shows Falling Off From That of Week Before.

Business on the local tobacco market last week was considerably heavier than that for the week before. Sales were good and prices satisfactory. The report from the salesman for the Association shows the sale of 147 hogsheads for the week. Prices ranged from $7 to $10.50 for large and $11 to $13 for leaf. Association receipts were light.

Business at the Society of Equity warehouse was very good throughout the week and sales were fully up to the standard of that organization.

The report of Auditor John D. Scales, of the Planters' Protective Association, for the week ending June 17, shows a small falling off from that of the past week.

The sales for the entire district so far this season over the market are as follows: Clarksville, 4,549 hogsheads; Springfield, 4,376; Guthrie, 2,154; Russellville, 546; Hopkinsville, 2,090; Cadiz, 510; Princeton, 392; Paducah, 2,931; Mayfield, 667; Murray, 1,281. Total sales for the season so far are 19,387 hogsheads of dark tobacco.
